How to Make Oregon Known Abroad.

Oregon newspapers reach comparatively few Eastern readers; hence the difficulty of making Oregon known to the people generally in those States to which we must look for accessions to our population. Thus it is that articles in our papers setting forth the advantages which Oregon offers to immigrants fall into the hands of few persons who are likely to be induced to remove to our State. The force of these efforts is mainly lost because the articles do not reach the class to whom they are mainly addressed. In consequence the great mass of the people in the Eastern States have received little or no information about Oregon. How to make our State known is a problem of deep interest to every one of our citizens; for if we expect to grow and prosper we must have accessions from abroad to our population.

A day or two since we made mention of a plan adopted by Mr. Parker, of Walla Walla, for disseminating information in regard to his section, through the Eastern States. He is at present stopping in New York City, and by publishing a circular letter of information, the substance of which he has had printed in several journals of wide circulation, he has attracted the attention of a multitude of persons to Walla Walla. He writes that he is receiving daily a vast number of letters of inquiry, and that hundreds of persons have signified their desire to come out, if they can only be satisfied that the country offers advantages that will justify them. An inquiry thus stimulated cannot but result in deciding many persons to seek homes in this quarter. By the simple means which he has adopted Mr. Parker has drawn in this direction the attention of a larger number of persons than could have been reached in the space of a year by all the Oregon newspapers combined. The cost of such an enterprise is small, and it could be imitated by persons in Oregon with great advantage to the State. Every part of Oregon might thus be minutely described to hundreds of thousands of readers, and the whole State with the general features of its climate, its soil, its rivers and its productions, might be more generally advertised than in any other way.

Much might also be effected by scattering similar publications throughout California. The immigrant who arrives in that State is disappointed and disheartened at finding all the good lands in the hands of speculators and held at exorbitant prices. Could he obtain reliable information about Oregon he would come here where he could either take land under the homestead act, or purchase the best of land in the older settled portions of the State at fair prices. But Californians misrepresent Oregon to him on purpose to [illegible] him from coming, and he knows not what course to take. By attending to this [illegible] in the proper way we might attract to Oregon large numbers who find their way to California and are not satisfied with that [illegible]

The [illegible] we are persuaded, are well [illegible] to, and an organization ought to be [illegible] in Portland at once to take active [illegible] in the press. Labor makes wealth, and we want an influx of laborers. All the [illegible] of every description are [illegible] and we have [illegible] to make our [illegible]

[illegible]

The [illegible] of the [illegible] under its new [illegible] ship proves well. Mr. Semple, the [illegible] publisher, a spirited introductory, and [illegible] while he shall strenuously [illegible] his principles and opinions, he will do it in a fair, frank and courteous manner. We hope he will be met in a similar spirit by the Republican [illegible] of Oregon.

A San Francisco journal states that an agent of [illegible] planters has contracted with some Chinese in San Francisco to furnish [illegible] 20,000 Chinese laborers, to work on [illegible] plantations. The planters are to pay $20 per month in gold for five years, and defray the costs of transportation from China to the [illegible] of the laborers. It strikes us that the Democracy might as well throw up the sponge on the Chinese question.

[illegible] in one of his [illegible] at San Francisco, denounced the levying head-money on the Chinese as unconstitutional. He had tried that question twenty years ago in Massachusetts with Daniel Webster, when he had the [illegible] levied on every Irishman abolished. A voice: The Chinese send their money out of the country. Train—Yes; they do just what we recognize as one of the finest traits in the Irish character: they send the money they earn among us to their friends and relatives in their native land to enable them to [illegible] here.

The Central Pacific Railroad charges more for freight from Sacramento to its way stations than to the end of the road at Promontory. The Union says the cheapest mode of sending freight to the way stations is to send it through to Promontory and then back again. "Our readers," says that paper, "will please remember that while the Central Pacific offers to carry freight 690 miles for $65 per ton in gold, they charge $71 50 in gold per ton for carrying it 682 miles. The rule is in imitation of the hotel keeper who charged his guests $3 per day and $5 per meal, but whose boarders always stayed the day out to make money. It is to be hoped this one will defeat itself in the same way.

When the Democrats controlled the City Council they gave no Republican member a [illegible] place on any standing committee. Mayor Boyd illustrated his impartiality by setting up the committees in such a way as to place a Democratic member in the position of Chairman in every instance. The Republicans who now control the Council deal more fairly with their political opponents. Mayor Goldsmith has given each Democratic member a leading place on a committee. Of one of the most important of the committees, that on Streets and Public Property, a Democrat is made Chairman. This is quite in contrast with the conduct of the Democrats, who conducted everything solely in the interest of their party.

The veteran New York editors are thus spoken of by a correspondent: "A great change will take place in the journalism of New York during the next ten years. We may count with an almost absolute certainty, of losing Mr. James Gordon Bennett, Mr Bryant, Mr. Thurlow Weed and Mr. Greeley. If they are not actually beneath the sod they will have outlived their usefulness as journalists. Already there are those who think that Mr. Greeley's mind is failing. Mr. Bennett is so feeble that he seldom comes down to his office; Mr. Bryant is very aged, and Mr. Weed has suspended all active labor."

White Cloud, Kansas, claims the second largest income west of the Mississippi, $71,000.

The President in Baltimore

BALTIMORE, June 30.—President Grant and a distinguished party to day visited the workshops of Baltimore and Ohio railroad and the European wharves at Locust Point. They subsequently embarked on the steamship Baltimore for a trip, probably as far as Fortress Monroe, to return to morrow.

More Clerks Discharged

WASHINGTON, June 30.—Instructions were issued to-day from the War Department for the discharge of fifty of the General Service clerks in the various bureaus of the Adjutant General's office.

CHARLESTON, S. C., June 30.—Accounts from all quarters represent the cotton crop both upland and Sea Island as extremely promising.

"I" and "My Policy" Again.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—Arrangements are being made for serenading ex President Johnson to-morrow night, when he will respond by a speech.

Chinese Laborers for the South.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 30.—A meeting for the purpose of encouraging Chinese emigration was held at the Chamber of Commerce to-day. A dispatch from San Francisco was received saying that Koopmanschap, the principal Chinese importer, will attend the meeting if one is held on the 13th of July. Resolutions were adopted declaring that the best interests of the South require that all legitimate inducements be afforded to encourage the immigration of Chinese laborers direct from China to supply a great demand now existing; also calling for a convention of delegates from all the cotton States to meet in July 1870.

Soldiers' Graves Decorated.

AUGUSTA, Me., June 30.—The graves of soldiers and sailors buried here were decorated yesterday under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic, firemen and Sunday School children. A large concourse of citizens participated. Hon. Joseph Baker delivered an address.

Honor to Gen. Sickles.

NEW YORK, June 30.—A reception was given to Gen. Sickles last evening, at the Everett House. Among the callers were Horace Greeley and Cyrus Field.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, June 30.—In the House of Commons last night, Moore call[illegible] attention to the treatment of Fenian prisoners, and [illegible]ested the motion that the Government ought to institute public inquiry into the subject of penal discipline and early modification of prisoners, to inquire how far political prisoners should be retained as a desperate class, etc. Moore said he believed a majority of Irish people sympathize with the Fenians, though unwilling to subvert the existing Government, but no class was contented with the present state of affairs. He strongly condemned the treatment of Fenians both before and after trial, and urged public inquiry therein.

Lord Bruce, Home Secretary, was not prepared to defend the treatment of the Fenians, but said in general the law was insufficient to deal with political prisoners. The statements of cruelty were, however, exaggerated. At present the treatment was extremely lenient.

Sullivan defended the conduct of the present Government respecting Fenianism. He accused Moore of endeavoring to make political capital by pandering to the passions of those who had been convicted. He hoped the time would soon arrive when such discussions shall cease, and no political prisoners remain in custody. The motion was negatived and the House adjourned.

The Times, commenting on the debate in the House of Commons last night, says the consideration of the Government is the probable effect which a release of the Fenian prisoners will have. It must be remembered that all those who are guilty in any inferior degree have been set free. Only the prime movers or active agents remain, all of whom have been sentenced for long periods of imprisonment, of which a small portion only has elapsed, and the misery brought upon individuals and society and the check to the prosperity of Ireland which they caused, forbid their release. If justice requires satisfaction, men who planned and in some cases executed murder, cannot be set free while others whose offenses are as nothing in comparison, drudge on. A distinction between political and other offenders cannot be admitted in the case of those who, with insufficient cause and no prospect of success, carried out their designs with great treachery, cruelty and murder. It was not less murder when accompanied by treason. There was nothing connected with the murders committed or attempted by the Fenians which should give the perpetrators the dignity of insurgents.

John Bright and W. E. Forest resigned their membership in the Reform Club, in consequence of the failure to elect as an honorary member a gentleman whose name they proposed.

MADRID, June 30.—Admiral Topete, Minister of Marine, and Senor Fenzuola, Minister of Finance, will probably soon resign.

BERLIN, June 30.—Bismarck has gone to his estates, where he will remain until October to recruit his health. He is temporarily relieved of the duties of President of the Council, but will continue to transact the business of the Federal Chancellorship.

LONDON, June 30.—In the House of Commons to-night, Mr. Bruce, alluding to demonstrations expected in Ireland on the 12th of July, said party processions were always proverbial of disturbances and ought to be prevented. The Government was obliged to enforce the law against them and prevent any break of the peace.

ANALYZING A WOMAN.—A celebrated Parisian belle, who had acquired the habit of whitewashing herself—so to speak—from the soles of her feet to the roots of her hair, with chemically prepared cosmetics, one day took a medical bath, and on emerging from it was horrified at finding herself as an Ethiopian. The transformation was complete. Not a vestige of the supreme Caucasian race was left. Her physician was sent for in alarm and haste. On his arrival he laughed immoderately, and said: "Madam, you are not ill; you are no longer a woman, but a sulphuret. It is not a question of medical treatment, but of simple chemical action. I shall analyze you. Come, I shall submit you to a bath of sulphuric acid diluted with water. The acid will have the honor of combining you; it will take up the sulphur, the metal will produce sulphate, and we shall find as a precipitate a pretty woman." The good natured physician went through with his analysis, and the belle was restored to her membership with the white race. Young ladies who are ambitious of snowy complexions should remember this, and be careful what powder and cosmetics they use—if they use any at all.

That "Train" passing through our city has indeed created an excitement. He claims to be on his way to the *White*house. Irishmen claim him as their Patriot. Englishmen don't claim him at all, and Kohn & Fishel claim to have the largest, best and finest stock of clothing and Gents' Furnishing Goods in the city, and undoubtedly can give sufficient proof that they are selling lower than any other house in Oregon.

FACTS WORTH KNOWING!

IF YOU WANT TO BUY A FARM YOU EXAMINE the soil, the lay, the locality, the title and the price. If you want to insure your life, examine the workings of the Company before you invest.

If you examine you will

INSURE IN THE

NEW ENGLAND MUTUAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY!

WHY?

BECAUSE you get your first DIVIDEND to HELP PAY YOUR SECOND PREMIUM. You do not have to wait 3 or 4 years for the distributions.

BECAUSE we have NO STOCKHOLDERS to draw from 12 to 25 per cent on imaginary CAPITAL STOCK (personal promises to pay, amounting from $30,000 to $50,000 annually

Because the NEW ENGLAND is a Mutual and is a Home Company in all our broad and beautiful country; an American Institution—the first one formed on the PURELY MUTUAL plan on this Continent.

BESIDES it is the only Company offering you the protection of the Massachusetts Law.

For example: A person aged 35, insures for $1,000, pays $26 50, say on the 1st July, 1869. Were he to die on the 4th July, 1871, 2 years and 3 days after, his policy would be paid. Thus:

Say amount Policy is	$1,000 00
Deduct two annual payments he has not paid, $26 50 each, and interest	54 62
The family would receive	946 38

No Snap Judgment here This is what we call EQUITABLE and MUTUAL.

Five annual payments keep the Policy in force 10 years and 50 days

Policies on which note has been given for one-third of the Premiums.

Five payments will continue in force nearly five years after payments have ceased.

On Endowment Fund the time is prolonged in proportion to the amount paid.

Take the statements of no solicitor for other Co[illegible] of our best at work[illegible], but call and [illegible] selves. We will be pl[illegible] at all time to communicate every information.

THE

New England Mutual

Is the only Company on this Coast that offers the above advantages to Policy-Holders.

The above examples are facts that are incontrovertible, and will be proven to the satisfaction of all persons calling on our agents.

NEW ENGLAND MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.,

HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. B. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this in new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

The Indian Service.

LETTER OF THE PRESIDENT TO THE COMMISSIONERS.

The President has addressed the following letter to the Indian Commissioners for their guidance in the discharge of their duties:

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, June 3, 1869.

A commission of citizens having been appointed, under the authority of law to co operate with the Administrative Department in the management of Indian Affairs, consisting of Wm. Welch, of Philadelphia, John O. Farwell, Chicago, Geo. H. Stuart, Philadelphia, Robert Campbell, St. Louis, W. E. Dodge, New York, Felix R. Brunot, Pittsburg, Nathan Bishop, New York, and Henry S. Lane, Indiana, the following regulations will, till further directions, control the action of the commission and of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, in matters coming under their joint supervision:

1. The commission will make its own organization and employ its own clerical assistance, keeping its "necessary expenses of transportation, subsistence and clerk hire, when actually engaged in said service," within the amount appropriated therefor by Congress.

2. The commission shall be furnished with full opportunity to inspect the records of the Indian office, and to obtain full information as to the conduct of all parts of the affairs thereof.

3. They shall have full power to inspect in person or by sub-committee the various Indian superintendencies and agencies of the Indian country, to be present at payment of annuities, at consultations or councils with the Indians, and when on the ground to advise superintendents and agents in the performances of their duties.

4. They are authorized to be present in person or by sub committee at purchase of goods for Indian purposes and inspect said purchases, advising with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs with respect thereto.

5. Whenever they shall deem it necessary or advisable that instructions of superintendents or agents be changed or modified they will communicate such advice through the office of Commissioner of Indian Affairs to the Secretary of the Interior, and in like manner their advice as to changes in modes of purchasing goods or conducting the affairs of the Indian Bureau proper. Complaints against superintendents or agents or other officers will in the same manner be forwarded to the Indian Bureau or Department of Interior for action.

6. The commission will, at their board meetings, determine upon the recommendations to be made as to the plans of civilizing or dealing with the Indians, and submit the same for action in the manner above indicated, and all plans involving the expenditure of public money will be acted upon by the Executive or the Secretary of the Interior before expenditure is made under the same.

7. The usual mode of accounting with the Treasury cannot be changed, and all expenditures, therefore, must be subject to the approvals now required by law and by the regulations of the Treasury Department, and all vouchers must conform to the same laws and requirements and pass through the ordinary channels.

8. All the officers of the Government connected with the Indian service are enjoined to afford every facility and opportunity to said commission and their sub committees in the performance of their duties, and to give the most respectful heed to their advice within the limit of such officers' positive instructions from their superiors, to allow such commissions full access to their accounts and to co-operate with them in the most earnest manner to the extent of their power in the general work of civilizing the Indians, protecting them in their rights and stimulating them to become industrious citizens in permanent homes, instead of following a roving and savage life.

9. The commission will keep such record or minutes of their proceedings as may be necessary to afford evidence of their action, and will provide for the manner in which their communication with and advice to the Government shall be made and authenticated

Signed U. S. GRANT

Gen Parker, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, has also prepared a circular letter of instructions to superintendents and agents as follows:

SIR: Under the authority conferred by the 4th section of the act of Congress approved June 30, 1869, for the organization of the department of Indian affairs, and making it competent for the President of the United States to require any military officer to execute the duties of Indian agent, and in accordance with general order No 49, issued from the headquarters of the army at Washington, dated May 7, 1869, detailing you for such duty, and directing you to report to this office for assignment thereto, and for instructions, you are hereby notified that you are assigned to the position of ——, vice ——, suspended, under authority conferred upon the President by the 2d section of the act of Congress approved April 10, 1869, amendatory to the act relating to the tenure of certain civil offices, approved March 2, 1867.

Having reported here, agreeably to the order referred to, you are now instructed to proceed without unnecessary delay to the —— named and relieve the incumbent ——, who will be directed to turn over to you all public property and moneys in his possession belonging to the superintendency taking your receipt therefor. Your duties are to superintend and control the agents embraced in your charge to keep the department fully and promptly advised of all matters of interest or importance appertaining to the service to make such suggestions or recommendations relative to the same as your judgment may be necessary and proper to carry into effect the regulations of the Department, and to obey the instructions that may be given you from time to time by the Secretary of the Interior or the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. The correspondence of the agents under your supervision, with the reports, estimates and accounts, nominations of suitable persons as employees and other matters of business, will be communicated to this office through you after having received your careful examination and judgment.

It being the wish of the Government of the United States to collect the Indians and locate them in permanent abodes upon reservations, and reasonable appropriations having been made to assist them in sustaining themselves, after such permanent location, by the pursuits of civilized life, you are earnestly requested to use your best endeavors in cooperating to advance this humane and wise policy. Make yourself as fully as possible respecting the condition of the Indians in your superintendency, impressing the Indian mind upon every favorable opportunity, with the views of the Government, and thus prepare them to submit to the inevitable change of their mode of life, to pursuits more congenial to a civilized state. You will endeavor to keep constantly before their minds the peaceful intentions of the Government, and obtain their confidence by acts of kindness, and honestly and justly dealing with them, thereby securing that peace which it is the wish of all good citizens to establish and maintain.

Your success in the accomplishment of these objects will depend greatly upon the efficiency, discretion and care to be exercised by you in the economical expenditure of the money placed at your disposal for this purpose, and it is confidently hoped that the result will prove the wisdom and expediency of your appointment for this responsible duty.

Receiving pay as an officer of the army, no additional compensation for your services as Superintendent of Indian Affairs can be allowed, but you will be allowed your necessary traveling and contingent expenses incurred in the discharge of your official duty.

Very respectfully yours, &c.,
ELY S. PARKER, Commissioner.

A Character.

From the New Orleans Picayune, May 27.]

Far away down on St. Anthony street is a row of dilapidated buildings, moss-grown and worm-eaten, where the vine excludes the light, and the shadows of noon are as fresh and cool as the air at dawn. The central one is inhabited by a wizard, whom the people around him call a voudon. He is wrinkled and gray with age, and his long, white beard reaches to his waist. Stooping and palsied, his walk is slow, but his fierce, black eyes gleam with a baleful light. He was supposed some days since by one who had lost some treasure. It was supposed the old man's supernatural power could enable him to find it. The man told his story of how a thief in the dead of night had entered his house, and carried away his property. The old man looked at him earnestly for a moment, and then inquired:

"You want me to find it?"

"Yes."

"Money then?" and he extended his withered hand for the accustomed dole, which was readily paid.

"Now listen to me," said the wizard. "Do you see this stick?" holding out an oaken staff.

"Yes."

"Well, now you must mount it, as when a child you rode stick horse, and go capering up the street shouting, lost! lost! lost!"

"Why people will laugh at me."

"No matter; do as I bid you, and almost before you know it a beautiful woman will appear, and lead you to where the stolen treasure is concealed."

Incredible as it may appear, the man had faith to follow his instructions. Mounted on his stick horse, he went capering up the street, yelling lost! lost! lost! People poked their heads out of the windows to inquire the meaning of the singular spectacle, but the only reply to eager questioning was the cry of lost! lost! lost!

A policeman who happened along supposed the poor fellow crazy, and took him to the lock up, from which he was soon sent to the asylum. But it being soon ascertained that he was only a monomaniac, and not mad, he was released thoroughly cured of his belief in voudon practices. He at once instituted suit against the aged wizard for obtaining money under false pretenses. But the old man contending that if his instructions had been followed he would speedily have met the beautiful lady and recovered the treasure, the justice dismissed the case, remarking simply that "a fool and his money is soon parted."

True Economy.

Many people have very erroneous ideas of economy, and we often hear really excellent people ridiculed for their "closeness and stinginess," as it is called, after they have acquired an independence. It was all well enough for them to save and economize when they were comparatively poor, but now they have got enough, "why don't they buy and screw things about with a lavish hand, and let things go to waste for the want of care," &c.

But suppose they could afford to do it, (though it is doubtful if they could,) would it be a good principle to act upon, or a

Important Facts!!!

THE CAPITAL STOCK

—OF—

THE PACIFIC

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.,

OF CALIFORNIA,

IS PAID IN,

IN GOLD COIN!!

—AND—

Cost Nothing to be INSURED!

This is Additional Security, Without Cost to the Insured, that the Capital Stock bears its own Interest!

THE PUBLIC CAN ACQUAINT ITSELF WITH the business reputation and standing of the Stockholders and Directors of the Company, and determine from that knowledge whether the affairs of the Company are likely to be honestly and fairly administered for the benefit of the Insured.

POLICIES ISSUED BY THE

PACIFIC MUTUAL

ARE NON-FORFEITABLE,

And by the Laws of California,

EXEMPT FROM EXECUTION!

The Company will at any time make AN ADVANCE of Cash on its Policies as future Dividends.

No permits or extra rates required for traveling East or in Europe.

Dividends actually non-forfeitable.

Thirty days grace on the payment of all Premiums.

After two annual payments the Company will, two years after the last payment, issue either a paid up Policy for the proportion of Premiums received, or pay the equivalent in cash.

The rate at which we have been sending money East for Life Assurance will amount, with interest, to at least Ten Million Dollars by January 1, 1870. This sum, enormous as it seems, is totally eclipsed by the magnitude of the interest which the Coast is losing for want of it. For instance: Its yield in the East at 6 per cent., compounded annually for ten years, is $6,952,167 27; here at 12 per cent., for four years, and 10 per cent. for six, compounded monthly, $25,490,906 62, or a difference of over eighteen millions!

With these facts in view what Company will likely pay the largest Dividend? The funds of the PACIFIC are all loaned at 1 to 1½ per cent. per month.

Of this large sum it is computed that Oregon and Washington Territory have contributed about one-fourth. This involves the sending away annually, to keep up the Premiums on Policies already issued, at least six or seven hundred thousand dollars, which if continued will soon drain the State of all its cash. If to California, it finds its way back here for our productions, a market for which we must look for there.

The applicant need not wait two or three months to know if he is accepted or rejected, but can receive his Policy in less than two weeks, and in case of death the money will be paid to his wife in as short a time.

COMMON COUNCIL.—The Common Council of the City of Portland met on Thursday evening, July 1, 1869, at 8 o'clock; and was called to order by His Honor B. Goldsmith, Mayor.

Present—Councilmen Besser, Brock, Bills, Hopkins, Lewis, Moffatt and Ripley.

Journal of the last meeting read and approved.

Councilmen Cree and Porter appeared and took their seats.

The Mayor then read the following Message:

Gentlemen of the Common Council: The citizens of Portland have seen fit to elect me as their Mayor for the ensuing term, by virtue of which I become the presiding officer of your honorable body.

In taking possession of this office, I feel some diffidence, having had very little experience in matters of this kind; but I rely on your kindness and beg of you to lend me all the assistance you can, and ask your kind indulgence, should I commit errors, assuring you that my motives are good and that they shall be solely directed for the benefit and welfare of our city.

There is a sacred trust given into our hands; let us never betray it, but let us administer the affairs of the city economically and in such a manner that we can always look back with pride and pleasure to the time when we occupied our present positions; so that when our term expires, we will leave a good record behind us. Let us be economical without being stingy, and try to make our city, not in name only, but in reality, the foremost city of this northwest coast.

I would ask the chairmen of the different committees to give special attention before recommending warrants and before certifying to bills and accounts, that everything has been performed well and according to contracts and be firm in refusals, except they are satisfied that it is all right.

I have at present nothing to propose to you, but will, from time to time, suggest matters as the occasion may require.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEE.

Committee on Fire and Water reported an ordinance for the purchase of a site for a house for Engine Co. No. 4. Report filed.

Councilman Hopkins asked for leave of absence during the evening.

REPORTS OF OFFICERS.

The Chief Engineer submitted his Annual Report, which was read and referred to the Committee on Fire and Water. The report shows a total loss by fire during the year of over $70,000; insured, $13,000.

The City Treasurer submitted his report for the quarter ending June 30, 1869, which was read and referred to Committee on Accounts and Current Expenses.

The Auditor and Clerk made his semi-annual report, which was read and ordered published.

ORDINANCES.

An ordinance providing for the purchase of the north half of Lot 4 in Block 9, was read a first and second time.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

The Mayor appointed the Standing Committees as follows:

Ways and Means—Brock, Ripley, Lewis.

Accounts and Current Expenses—Hopkins, Moffatt, Ripley.

Fire and Water—Bills, Besser, Porter.

State and Public Property—Cree, Brock, Lewis.

Bridges and Wharves—Porter, Hopkins, Bills.

Health and Police—Besser, Ripley, Moffatt.

Elections—Moffitt, Hopkins, Ripley.

Judiciary—Lewis, Cree, Brock.

River Improvement—Moffatt Lewis, Cree.

After which, on motion of Councilman Bills, the Council adjourned.

[illegible] from Ohio.—The following is an extract from Ohio, June 16:

"There are at this time, many thousands of good citizens in this and other Western States who will remove to the Pacific coast as soon as the expense shall be reduced so as to be within their means. Now I suggest that a meeting be called at Portland, at an early day, to appoint a delegate to proceed to Omaha to the President of the U. P. R. R. Co., praying a reduction in the fare to Ogden and Salt Lake over that road from Omaha to Salt Lake. Also, to procure the best terms at Boise, (or other towns, as your deliberations may devise,) to meet with them at Salt Lake, and convey them to the C. P. R. R. at the lowest rates for which mail coaches will carry them. If you can get information with regard to the fertility and the topography of Oregon could be sent to every town in each State, from Maine to Kansas, to be distributed [illegible] it would greatly increase the amount of emigration to Oregon.

"Each of these agents would notify the Wagon Agent at Boise of the number of emigrants going from his district to take wagons at Salt Lake on a certain day; so that the right number of teams would be ready to receive them. Some parties wishing to remove from this place to Salt Lake, Oregon, recently called on me, wishing to go with me via Utah to Roseburg. I advised them to get a through ticket to Sacramento, thence to Marysville (Cal.) by rail, thence by Oregon mail coach to Roseburg, as a saving of both time and money to them. I truly desire the company of this party, but cannot advise [illegible] to their interest. Some parties going this way to Southern Oregon might stop on the way and not reach the healthy [illegible] fertility and prolific productiveness of your State. Thus Oregon will continue, as she has done, to lose what is justly hers. It is to the interest of the State to [illegible], at the earliest possible period, a cheap and reliable route for emigrants from Salt Lake to Umatilla."

AN EXPLANATION.—It is the custom of millers on this coast, says the Evening Bulletin, to pack their flour in sacks, while Eastern millers put theirs up in barrels. For home consumption, and upon the foreign markets, no difference is made between flour in sacks and that in barrels; but in those markets at a distance that have not been supplied with barreled flour, it is impossible to dispose of flour in sacks, except at a discount on the price paid for the same article put up in wooden packages. The Willamette Woolen Manufacturing Company, aware of this difference, are going to try an experiment with one hundred barrels of flour from the Salem Mills in the China market. At the present rates of cloth it costs fifty cents per barrel to put the flour in bags. Using barrels, it will cost seventy-five cents to put up the same per bbl. They will get a larger price for their barreled flour than for the same quality in sacks. This only [illegible] the Salem Merchants in sacks can be transported on water craft than any other class of packages, and [illegible] that the extra freight on barrels will more than counterbalance the advance on the flour. If it be found that flour packed in barrels can be profitably [illegible], we understand that the [illegible] machinery for a barrel factory will be put in operation at this place.

FROM SALEM.—We clip the subjoined items from the Statesman of yesterday:

There is much sickness among the children in this locality at the present time. The prevailing type of disease is diarrhea.

The Willamette river is within seven inches of the low water mark made last year. If the present dry weather continues the river will be lower than ever before known.

Commencement week at Willamette University will begin July 19th and conclude July 23d, 1869. Examination of the [illegible] takes place on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Anniversary address before the Literary Societies will be delivered on Wednesday evening by Rev Prof. L. J. Powell, A. M. On Thursday, beginning at nine o'clock A. M., the regular commencement exercises of the graduating class will be presented. On Thursday evening, beginning at two o'clock: 1st, Inaugural [illegible] by Dr. N. Rounds, President of the University; 2d, Valedictory oration, by John M. Garrison, A. B.; 3d, Farewell address, by Rev. S. G. Irvine, A. M., of the class of 1869. Degrees conferred. Thursday evening, beginning at 7½ o'clock, the annual reunion of the Alumni of the University. The Visiting Committee appointed by the Conference were: Rev. N. Doane, Rev C. C. Stratton, Rev. P. B. Knight, Hon. M. P. Deady and S. C. Simpson, Esq.

FIREMEN'S COLLATION.—The several fire companies held a meeting last evening and each appointed a committee of three to serve (all together) as a general committee to arrange for entertaining on the 5th visiting firemen from Salem. The General Committee thus formed, met subsequently at the Council Chamber and after voting to have a collation, appointed a sub-committee to make the preparations. The sub-committee consists of F. M. Arnold of Vigilant Hook & Ladder Co.; Rey Reed, of Willamette Engine Co. No. 1; Holland Gwynne, of Multnomah No. 2; A. Dodge, of Columbia No. 3, and R. Hendrie, of Protection No. 4.

ARRIVALS.—Already, many people from the interior are arriving at this city for the purpose of attending our celebration. Most of these now arrived, have anticipated the day of celebration, in order to visit friends in the city, but by this afternoon and to-morrow, the rush upon hotels and outside camping grounds may be expected to begin. The indications are that we shall have by far the largest gathering ever witnessed in Oregon.

CIRCUIT COURT.—UPTON, JUDGE.—Proceedings of yesterday:

State of Oregon vs. George Oakes; testimony submitted to jury at 11½ A. M.; at 4½ o'clock P. M. the jury came into court and asked to be discharged; on consultation with the attorneys of the parties the jury was remanded to the jury room for further deliberation. Parrish and [illegible] for plaintiff; Caples & Moreland for defendant.

CITY TREASURER.—Mr. Ed. Backenstose, the new City Treasurer, has established his office in Homes' & Goodnough's building, on First street, between Stark and Washington, where he will be found to-day, ready to do business.

JURY DISCHARGED.—The jury in the case of George Oakes, came into court last evening, and upon their announcement that they could not agree upon a verdict, they were discharged.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—This Court will convene this morning, when a decision will be rendered in the case of Orin Wright vs. [illegible] Wright; libel for alimony.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamship Pacific sailed from San Francisco for Portland, July 1st. The Oregon will be announced to sail next Thursday.

GEO. FRANCIS TRAIN'S SECOND LECTURE.—Odd Fellows' Theater was full last night to hear Geo. Francis Train's second lecture. The speaker was hardly so happy, in some respects, as on Tuesday evening, though the audience seemed well enough satisfied with the entertainment. Mr. Train made some hard and richly deserved hits at the American disposition to toady to England, and took off in exceedingly rich style the manner in which America and England conduct their "mutual admiration Society." In short, the entire lecture was ingenious and entertaining, and sometimes rich. There were some good things well said, many indifferent things dressed up in attractive shape, and some things which amounted to nothing more than amusing clap-trap. With all this, Mr. Train gave us some excellent acting, and altogether a rich treat. He is a genius in his way whose superior will not be found in a million men. He will lecture here only twice more—this evening and to-morrow night. Those who wish to hear him, therefore, should not stand upon the order of their going, but go at once.

PRINTERS' REUNION.—Talk about Journalistic sentimentalities! The best illustration we have ever seen of the "lamb lying down with the lion," and all that sort of thing, was vouchsafed us last evening, when upon the invitation of the new Herald proprietors, the proprietors, editors and printers of the Herald and Oregonian establishments all met at one table and partook of a most bountiful collation, provided by Messrs. Semple & Patterson, the new chiefs of the Herald. The good cheer, the good feeling, the good muck-a-muck, and the good esculenta, all conspired to make the occasion a happy one, and when all hands retired, each one was satisfied that he had never struck a better thing in his life. By the way, George Francis Train was there and enlivened the occasion with his inimitable wit and exhaustless fund of anecdote. And by the way, too, George Francis Train made a bit of a speech to the boys, in which he said—well no matter what he said—it was what nobody else could have said so well. Altogether it was just such a reunion as every one present will remember while he lives.

ATTENTION! VETERANS OF THE MEXICAN WAR.—The officers, non-commissioned officers, musicians, privates, teamsters and employees, sailors and marines, who served the United States in the Mexican war and received an honorable discharge, residents or visitors in Oregon and Washington Territory are requested to meet on Saturday, at the Council Chamber, the 3d inst., at 7 o'clock P. M. to make arrangements for participating in the ensuing celebration of American Independence.

(Signed) Gen. H. Hamilton, Daniel O'Regan, T. J. Calloway, W. B. Clark, James Lusk, F. B. Carey, Thos. Ryan, J. C. Johnson, J. H. Lappens, John Yates, Wm. McMillan, Md. Chambreau, D. C. Coleman, Clement Fritts.

Portland, July 1st, 1869.

OPENING DAY—CHAMPAGNE DINNER.—Mr. S. D. Smith, one of the pioneer hotel men of this city, and, withal, one of the most successful, reassumed the management of the Western Hotel yesterday. On the occasion of his first dinner, a half dozen or more of the newspaper men responded to an invitation to dine. It would be superfluous to say that we sat down to a first class dinner, for everybody knows that. Sam couldn't be persuaded to spread any other sort. On account of our Good Templar friends, we won't mention the champagne that flowed, but it will be safe to bet heavy that the journalistic fraternity then and there present, devoured a "square meal" that would be hard to beat. It was unanimously voted that "Sam can keep a hotel."

MILITARY.—The Jacksonville Sentinel of the 26th says: "We learn from Dr. Tolman, A. A. Surgeon at Fort Klamath, that Captain McGregor and Lieut. Garvey with Co. A, 1st Cavalry, left that post Monday, for Arizona, and are expected to arrive here to-day. Captain Goodale and Lieut. Thorburn with Co. K, 23d Infantry, is now stationed there. Dr. L. E. Holmes, A. A. Surgeon, U. S. A., was also succeeded by Dr. George B. Tolman, A. A. Surgeon U. S. A., from Camp C. F. Smith, Oregon, late Surgeon U. S. volunteers from Arizona. Dr. Holmes was ordered to report at headquarters at Portland, for annulment of contract, and muster out of service."

MONEY GETTING EASY.—In collecting the bills of the last month, yesterday and the day before, it was demonstrated that there is much more money in circulation than at the end of any preceding month since January. Not half the usual trouble was experienced in getting bills in. The consequence is that business men, generally, feel more assured and hopeful.

DEPUTIES APPOINTED.—Marshal Saunders has appointed James Loton and John Donovan Deputy Marshals. For special policemen and deputies, he has appointed Bernard O'Hara, H. M. Hudson, A. B. Brannan, and Wm. Clink. We know all of these well, except the latter, and we believe them to be excellent appointments.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—At a regular meeting of Samaritan Lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., held Wednesday evening, the following officers were elected to serve the ensuing term: R. B. Chatfield, N. G.; J. M. Caywood, V. G.; U. R. Hicks, Permanent Secretary; Joseph Cohen, Treasurer.

BOYS' GYMNASIUM.—We are informed that the Turn Verein Society of this city propose to open a gymnasium school for boys, Mr. A. Frankeneau, No. 61 Front street, will furnish all desired information concerning the matter.

AFTERNOON PERFORMANCE.—The Circus will give a grand matinee on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, for the benefit of ladies and children and others who cannot attend the evening performance.

REHEARSALS.—The Philharmonic Society met last evening for the rehearsal of pieces to be sung on the 5th, and will meet again for the same purpose this evening and to-morrow evening.

ERROR.—Yesterday morning the compositor dropped a cipher out of Ed. Beckenstose' bail, and let him rather violently down from $40,000 to $4,000. The bail given was $40,000.

STREET IMPROVEMENT.—The grading and planking of Yamhill street has been nearly completed to Sixth street.

The contractors have commenced the planking of C street.

IRON FRONT CASTINGS.—The front of the Odd Fellows' new Temple will have in it about fourteen tons of castings—plain and fancy—the most of which are already cast.

SOIREE.—Prof. Cardinell will give one of his very pleasant soirees to-morrow evening, at his Dancing Academy. Everybody invited.

BOARD OF DELEGATES.—Pursuant to adjournment, the Board of Delegates will meet at the Council Chamber at eight o'clock this evening.

It is a Home Company in every locality.
Its Policies are Exempt from Attachment.
There are no Unnecessary Restrictions in the Policies.
Every Policy is Non-forfeitable.

No Extra Rate is charged for Risks upon the Lives of Females.
Insures Not to Pay Dividends, but at so low a cost that dividends will be impossible.

Its Policies are Negotiable.

By the Charter of the Company, certificates of obligations will be issued, agreeing to purchase its Policies at their value which, when accompanied by the Policy duly assigned or transferred, are negotiable, and may be used as collateral security, in making loans from the Company or from other parties.

The Hon. John E. Sandford, Insurance Commissioner of Massachusetts, in his Report for 1868, speaking of Dividends in Life Insurance Companies, says: "The sooner such guarantees cease to be made, and such expectations created, the sooner Life Insurance will come to rest on its true motive, and men insure their lives for security, and not for dividends. The best and most popular companies will then be those that promise only equity, and render all that they promise, and furnish the best security, with the most upright and judicious management."

"By the Stock plan, the full cash effect of the Premium is immediately secured to the Insured, the Company taking ALL the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in Insurance of the Premium paid, is not secured to the Policy-holder who takes a portion of the risk himself."

FRIDAY MORNING JULY — 1869

The Indian Service.

It pleases some of the Democratic organs refer to the assignment of military officers the Indian service as an attempt to exalt e military at the expense of the civil authorities, and as a step towards that "military spotism" of which we have heard so much ring the last ten years. One of these orans in this State characterizes the movement "dangerous to liberty," and adds "Even e Radical Congress had but three members ho voted for turning the Indian Bureau over the Military, and yet U. S. Grant no sooner nds Congress adjourned than by his arbrary acts he does what Congress voted, with- three of unanimous, should not be done."

The people of Oregon are a good deal interested in this matter, and it is just as well or them to understand the facts and not allow such assertions and such grammar as the bove to lead them into error. The House oted almost unanimously to transfer the Indian Bureau to the War Department, but the ill failed to pass the Senate. The law creting the Indian Bureau, which was passed in 834, declares, however, that "it shall be ompetent for the President to require any military officer of the United States to exeute the duties of Indian Agent." Under his law the President is acting. He therefore has undeniable legal authority for the tep he has taken. Yet as Congress failed to pass the bill that would have made the transfer to the War Department absolute, we think it would have looked better in the President o have allowed the civilians doing duty as Agents to remain in office, and to have renoved none except for actual cause. The assignment of military officers to such places as were vacant might have been well enough, but it certainly does not appear well for the President to remove with such precipitation those Agents whom he himself had just appointed. In most cases it works an injury and hardship upon them. Their business affairs had been arranged with special reference to their official duties, and so sudden a change must involve them in loss and do the grossest injustice.

The plea, however, that this is a step to place the military in the ascendency and to strike a blow at the liberties of the country, is so shallow as to be hardly worth a word of comment or even of ridicule. Those who passed the law of 1834 which gives the President power to appoint military officers to this duty, did not consider the measure a menace to the country's liberties. Thirty-five years ago there was no fear that the assignment of a few army officers to duty as Indian agents would build up a military despotism. The generation preceding this was not quite so easily alarmed on this point. It is worth while for our Democratic brethren who are so terribly horrified with the fear of a "military despotism," to remember that the law under which President Grant is now acting and which they say may be so dangerous to the liberties of the country was passed when Gen Jackson was President, and was approved by him. This fact may serve to show them the idea that the law may not be so dangerous after all.

There is no disguising the fact that there are many men of both parties, especially in the North, who are glad to see the assignment of military officers to this duty. The decisive vote in the House in favor of transferring the Indian Bureau to the War Department and the endorsement of the measure by so large a portion of the press, without distinction of party, indicates that the President's action in the premises will receive a great deal of support. The movement is a general one, and is intended to take effect in all the States and Territories where there are Indians under Government control. Such, at all events, is the policy which has been announced. But we think the President should either have declined to appoint civilians in the first place, or, after appointing them, should have allowed them to remain. The course which has been pursued looks rather too crooked and vacillating to give entire satisfaction.

The Railroad Charges.

There is a good deal of concern in California about the high rates charged by the Central Pacific railroad. Against the extortionate charges imposed by this company the Sacramento Union has heretofore fought almost alone. Singularly enough, no San Francisco paper has yet dared to brave the displeasure of this powerful corporation and unite with the Union in demanding a reduction of their tariffs. It has been promised all along that on the first of July a material reduction would be made, and the whole people of the Pacific slope have been waiting with interest to see this promise fulfilled. At length a pamphlet is issued by the Company, containing a statement of the "established rates" to be charged on the road. These rates are from ten to ten and one-half cents per ton to the mile. Thus a ton of goods from Sacramento to Promontory, 690 miles, pays a charge of $71 50. This is the tariff on heavy articles. One-half more is charged for articles of a light and bulky description. These rates are payable in gold. They are simply extortionate and outrageous. Other railroads, built by private capital, carry freight at two cents per ton per mile, in currency; but this road built almost wholly by the Government and given to the Company, charges rates which amount almost to a prohibition of trade. San Francisco is already feeling the injurious effects of a policy which she has not yet shown enterprise enough to battle against. Her press is silent on the subject, and the railroad managers are allowed to riot without rebuke in the excess of their wickedness. The Sacramento Union forcibly says that, "If the merchants of San Francisco and Sacramento do not within a fortnight combine in a powerful association to compel the Company to make an immediate further reduction of not less than thirty per cent. they will not deserve to secure the Utah trade or any part of it, and ought not to control that of Nevada. This new tariff of freights is an insult to our merchants and an outrage upon the public."

Again: "If our cotemporaries at the Bay will help us in an effort to secure this one needed reform—to compel the Central Pacific to carry all freight, mile for mile, as cheaply as the Union Pacific, and both of them as cheaply, mile for mile, as reason and the public interest demand they should—the complaint of dull times will be silenced, and San Francisco will soon cease to be a decaying or stagnant provincial city." Treating of the same subject, the Union's commercial reporter at San Francisco remarks that "the continued stagnation in every department of business in this city since the completion of the Pacific Railroad is beginning to make our local merchants rub their eyes, and to make an effort to wake themselves up to a comprehension of the altered condition of affairs effected by that great work. The Eastern retailers of increasing stocks of goods, with fewer to buy, are striking the deepest in their most sensitive point, their money bags, and they are making frantic efforts to remove the impediments they have placed in their own paths. Unfortunately the vicious training of the majority of them during the past ten or fifteen years has unfitted them for grappling with the subject comprehensively. Men who have been educated in the school which holds the highest object in commerce to be the cutting off of all competition and monopolizing any article of prime necessity, in order to increase the price exorbitantly, are incapable to compete with those who have made it their life's study to extend their business by cheapening prices and thus increasing the consumption of their goods."

In General

The Supreme Court of Indiana has rendered an important decision. The validity of the special appropriation bill, which was passed after the Democratic members retired from the Legislature, is affirmed. This is also an affirmation of the legality of the action of the Legislature on the Fifteenth Amendment. The ratification of this article by Indiana will stand.

The San Francisco Bulletin evidently knows how to make a virtue of necessity. It says that the "fall in real estate" in that city is a "fortunate occurrence," because it will "release considerable money for improvements and legitimate business." Also that, "the check that has been given to the homestead business is wholesome." This philosophy is certainly cheerful and serene. The person in the Two Gentlemen of Verona who remarked that "there is no virtue like necessity," spoke not only for himself but for the Bulletin and thousands more.

During President Grant's recent tour he was made to dance a galliard at Annapolis and West Point. General Sherman was also pressed into the same service. They both executed the figure miserably. Jenkins says that Grant "did no better than a frozen-toed turkey," and "had a scared look on his face which moved your heart;" while Sherman was "awkward, and quite as bold as awkward, taking steps like his soldiers marching to the sea." Captains in vain punched the President; in vain did Colonels pull back the General; and at length, we are told, the President, "very much abashed, deserted the Terpsichorean field," followed by General Sherman, who was much better satisfied with his performances in that line.

From information received from competent and disinterested persons who have fully investigated affairs at the Insane Asylum and made inquiry into the condition of the patients, we are satisfied that the minority report of the grand jury on this subject does great injustice to Dr. Hawthorne, as well as to Dr. Giltner, the Visiting Physician. It was perfectly clear to five of the grand jurors that the patients whom the other two jurors asserted were sane, were not sane at all, and not in a fit condition to leave the Asylum. It is important to have grand juries composed of intelligent men who can perform their duties in a proper manner and leave buncombe rhetoric about "our glorious Constitution" for use on some other occasion than when preparing a minority report on the condition of patients in an Asylum for the insane. The cases pronounced sane by the minority are actually among the most insane in the institution.

WAGON ROAD SWINDLE.—Under this head the Commercial prints the following:

We are gathering facts relating to the sudden construction and prompt acceptance by the Governor of the Dalles and Boise Wagon Road, whereby it is proposed to take six hundred thousand acres of the best land of Eastern Oregon and give it to a corporation for doing nothing, just nothing at all. Governor Woods is engaged in the land business, and we expect to make quite an interesting chapter for his political friends, in a few days.

By all means let us have the facts in this case. If there is any "swindle" in it we want nobody spared. We may add, however, that the Road Company is composed almost wholly of Democrats, so that if there is any "swindle" in it other men besides the "political friends" of Gov. Woods are implicated.

THE WEST.

Californians are sending "lots" of watermelons to New York by the Pacific railroad.

The plan adopted for the Odd Fellows' Hall at Sacramento is estimated to cost $60,000.

The powder mill at Santa Cruz is now in full blast. It turns out 14,000 kegs per month and employs nearly eighty men.

B. C. Whiting, Superintendent of Indian Affairs for California, has received peremptory orders from Washington by telegraph to vacate his position immediately, and prior to the arrival of his successor, General McPherson. No cause is assigned for this peremptory order.

The Nevada Gazette says much has been said about the last "tie." It is, or rather was, at Promontory. The original tie has been cut into thousands of fragments and carried off. The second and third ones that were laid in its place, have also shared the same fate, and cords of wood have been cut up at the point and sent all over the United States, and called the "Last Tie."

In the commercial columns of the Bulletin of June 23, we find the following. "The only transaction consummated at Maurice Dore & Co's auction sale of real estate to-day, was the disposal of a piece of property, by order of the Probate Court, situate on the south side of Geary street, 22x100 feet, with the improvements thereon, for the sum of $8,500. There were other offerings, but no sales." The same tune

Says the San Francisco Bulletin: California merchants and manufacturers who are alive to the situation will find, whatever their practice has hitherto been, that they must employ commercial travelers to represent them and solicit orders for their wares throughout California, Oregon, Nevada, Idaho, Montana and Utah, if they want to extend their trade in these fields, or even to retain what they already have.

A dispatch from San Francisco to the Sacramento Union, (June 25) says: The Democratic primary election to-day was conducted in regular Democratic style, whisky drinking and fighting being the rule. There was not a ward in which there was not more or less fighting. In the Fifth Ward the McCuppin men drew pistols and drove some of their opponents away. The polls were kept open till eight o'clock, and a very heavy vote thrown. The result will not be known before twelve o'clock.

The Grass Valley (Cal.) Union says the atmosphere of that town "seems to predispose the human family to 'strike.' In the first place the miners struck against giant powder, then the butchers struck against the idea of selling their meats at less than it cost them; the miners then struck against butchers' meats; last Saturday afternoon some of the men working on the Atlantic and Pacific States Telegraph Co.'s line struck; and on Saturday night a small Democratic meeting struck against this paper publishing its proceedings. This is the out strikingest town in the State."

The reduction of the clerical force of the several departments has had a visible effect on the business of Washington. It is estimated that, including the families of the discharged clerks, over three thousand persons have left the city during the past two months. One church has lost fifty members of its congregation for the same reason.

THE EL PASO PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The New York Tribune speaking of the departure of Gen. Fremont for Europe says: The General goes out on a brief visit in the interests of the Memphis, El Paso and Pacific railroad company, whose Texas land grant bonds for $10,000 for the first 900 miles of the road have been so successfully negotiated in the French market through his instrumentality. He is accompanied by Major James M. Daniel, Engineer-in-Chief of the company, whose personal inspection of material for the road, ordered in France, is required. The management of this enterprise has recommenced work on the road, independent of Congressional aid, and has advertised for proposals for putting the first 300 miles in running order by October, 1870. The remaining 513 miles of the main trunk in Texas, as well as about 200 miles of its arm from the Brazos river to Marshall, running on the 32d parallel, and also 200 miles of the Pacific Division of the road, between San Diego and Fort Yuma, the company expect to construct and complete within three years. An efficient representative of the company, Gen. Morton C. Hunter, late member of Congress from Indiana, is on his way by rail to San Francisco, to start operations from San Diego, under the superintendence of Col. T. S. Sedgwick, engineer for the Pacific Division of the road. The company intend soon to bring their lands in Texas, as well as around the Atlantic terminus on the harbor of Norfolk, and the Pacific terminus on the harbor of San Diego, into the market.
